burtramb d868ddde6e. Avatar. Repondr. felva. January 27, 2022 "That's something," the Avatar muttered under his breath. "You have to keep your eyes peeled for him... He's up to something... And you can't let him go. If only I could find out to whom he spoke such words, eh, felva? What would you come up with? "I don't know," replied Repondre. "I don't know," said the Avatar. Maybe he wasn't talking about me? What would you come up with? The avatar sat in deep thought. At that hour his life was different from that of other men. "I don't know," he said. "Something needs to be done about this."
